

STUDENT INTERNATIONAL BUSINESS COUNCIL
STATEMENT OF VALUES

“I have faith & trust in the young people who manage & carry the SIBC forward.”

- Benefactor Frank A. Potenziani

As an organization, the Student International Business Council of the University of Notre Dame du Lac & Saint Mary’s College strives to uphold the highest moral & ethical standards in every aspect of our organization.

When acting in an official capacity of the SIBC, we expect our members to exhibit leadership, responsibility, dedication & professionalism.

In our interactions with Corporate Partners, Schools, University officials & other outside sources, we expect our members to behave in a business-like manner in terms of dress, language & overall behavior.

When traveling in a foreign country, we expect our members to respect & comply with laws of their host country. While respecting these laws however, our members should never comport themselves in a manner unbecoming of a citizen of The United States of America, a student at the University of Notre Dame, Saint Mary’s College, or Holy Cross College and a representative of the Student International Business Council.

Failure to comply with the highest moral & ethical behavior on behalf of our members will not go unpunished. Minor offenses will be taken into account when a student attempts to further their SIBC experience. In addition, egregious offenses against the mission of the SIBC will sever the ties between this organization & the offending party. Such actions may also merit University disciplinary intervention.

While our members are diverse in background & belief, the members of the Student International Business Council are united in the common cause of moral, ethical & professional behavior. Above all else, we are unified in belief of our vision: “PEACE THROUGH COMMERCE”.
